

Greetings from Beautiful Sonoma County!

Congratulations, APAHE, on your many accomplishments over the years. We welcome you to learn more about another accomplishment: nearly 100 years of high-quality education at Santa Rosa Junior College.

Located in the magnificent Northern California Wine Country, we offer professional opportunities for education professionals who want to serve a diverse, motivated student body.

Named two years running as a Great College To Work For (2012-13, 2013-14), SRJC was the only California community college to earn this distinction, and one of only 12 community colleges nationwide to be named on the Honor Roll.

Please join us at the SRJC table to learn more about opportunities including:
