

OUR LIVES. OUR STORIES. OUR FUTURE.

ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICANS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

APRIL 24-26, 2013
SAN FRANCISCO, CA

VISIT <http://tinyurl.com/seewhyapahe2013>
TO SEE WHY PEOPLE ARE REGISTERING IN RECORD NUMBERS

REGISTRATION:

1. To register visit - https://leap.org/conferences/apahe_form.php
2. If overnight accommodations is required, reserve a room at the Hilton - <http://tinyurl.com/hiltonapahe2013>

The special room rate (185.00 USD/Night) will be available until April 1st or until the group block is sold-out, whichever comes first.*

Featuring over two dozen workshops including:

- Women in Student Affairs Administration: Unfolding the Future
- Affirmative Reactions: Attending to the Physical and Mental Health of AAPI Students
- The Importance of Second-in-Commands
- Getting to the Table: Cultivating Effective Practices to Influence Your Institution
- AANAPISI Voices: Learning from our Students

Featuring multiple plenary sessions, including:

- Cultivating Diverse Leaders for a Changing Higher Education Landscape
- From Refugee Camp to College Campus: Her life. Her story.
- Shattering the Myth: Asian Pacific Americans Can't Lead - President's Panel

Optional Social Activities:

- Resume Review by Chief Human Resource Officers
- Wellness Activities and Social Networking
- Book Signing
- Group Dinners
- Two Receptions

New Speakers to the Front - just added:

Evan Low

Mayor, City of Campbell
One of the youngest Asian mayors in the United States.

Carol Liu

Senator, 25th District, and Chair,
Senate Education Committee

Donald Yu

Special Advisor to the Secretary of Education (Keynote)

The Fung Brothers

New Age Edutainment (blending education and entertainment to inspire and inform)
Meet them on Thursday, April 25!

Robert Gomez Hernandez (Artist Spotlight)

Meet our Artist spotlight at the APAHE
Closing Reception, Friday, April 26.

Li Keng

Meet her at the APAHE Closing Reception on Friday, April 26 and learn about her acclaimed book, "Good Fortune: My Journey to Gold Mountain."

For more information about APAHE, go to apahenational.org

"The conference was wonderful. This was my first time going to this conference. I really felt accepted and welcomed by everyone. I felt like I was part of a community which I have not experienced before. I was impressed that there were various ethnic groups represented and that everyone was so supportive and encouraging. I felt like I really learned a lot. The speeches and the sessions were informative and inspiring. Thank you for a great experience!!"